

Provincial Drainage - Water Management Conference

A Realistic Approach To Water Management for Agricultural Producers

Tuesday, January 23, 2018
Kerry Vickar Centre
Melfort, Saskatchewan

- 9:15 am - Opening Remarks
- 9:35 am - Greetings from the Water Security Agency
Sam Ferris, Vice-President, Regulatory
- 9:45 am - Agriculture Water Management Strategy - What have we accomplished so far?
Clinton Molde, Executive Director of Regional Services, Water Security Agency
- 10:15 am - Coffee
- 10:30 am - Working with Producers - The Role of Qualified Persons
Julie McKenzie, PAg, M-Over-C Land and Cattle Co., Hazenmore, SK
- 11:30 am - Saskatchewan Conservation and Development Area Authority Update
Miles Wendell, Vice-President, SCDA
- 12:00 pm - Lunch
- 1:00 pm - What does the new Ag Water Management Strategy mean for C&D's?
Doug Johnson, Executive Director, Special Projects, Water Security Agency
- 1:45 pm - The Benefits and Implications of Agricultural Drainage on Soils
Robin Brown, MSC, AAgr, Conservation Learning Centre, Prince Albert, SK
- 2:15 pm - Coffee
- 2:30 pm - Agricultural Water Quality in the Prairies: Challenges, Choices and Solutions
Jian Liu, PhD/PDF, School of Environment and Sustainability,
Global Institute for Water Security, University of Saskatchewan
- 3:15 pm - Conference Wrap Up

* Agenda subject of change

Register for the Conference by contacting Charlotte Asplind at 306-752-1270 (office) or email: crwatershed@gmail.com
before January 19, 2018
Cost: $75 per person (includes lunch)

